

The goal of WHS school rules: To help students conduct themselves in ways that promote learning and are compatible with success in adult roles. The rules promote a positive educational environment for all students and staff, promote respect and comfort, and comply with Washington State laws and Arlington Public Schools policies. Upon signing this contract, I understand and agree to the following:

Major infractions

- Possession of a weapon
- Physical assault
- Dealing drugs on campus or within a 1000 foot radius
- Verbal assault, intimidation, and harassment
- Defying authority
- Theft or malicious destruction of property
- Cheating, forging documents/assignments
- Possessing or being under the influence of alcohol or other drugs on campus or within 1000 foot radius
- Disrupting the educational process
- Gambling
- Leaving campus without permission
- Operating a vehicle in an unsafe way on or near campus

Minor infractions

- Inconsistent attendance
- Failing to meet CAP
- Using tobacco on or near campus
- Inappropriate use of computer
- Leaving class without permission
- Swearing
- Dressing inappropriately
- Wasting time
- Playing music without permission
- Cell phone on or used during class
- Tardies (3 in a CAP)
- Truancy - At 7 unexcused absences in one month or 10 unexcused absences in one year, Arlington Public School policy states that a petition for Court Intervention Regarding Truancy will be filed against the parent and/or student for violation of RCW 28A.225.010.

Major offenses may result in suspension, a parent notification and a re-entry conference with parents. Repeated minor offenses will also result in parent notification and a parent conference. The principal reserves the right to suspend students when, in his/her judgement, the behavior and attitude have, or will have, a continuing negative impact on the schooling of others or at any time the principal determines that WHS is not likely to meet the student's needs. Repeated minor infractions, which disrupt the educational process, will be considered a major infraction.
